

WNY PRISM

Partnering to Protect Western New York from Invasive Species

Invasive Species Awareness Week July 12-18, 2015

Tuesday

7/14

9:30-4:30 PM

Community First Detector Invasive Pest Detection Workshop, Fredonia, NY

Presented by the National Plant Diagnostic Network. This all day seminar focuses on early detection and sampling protocols for invasive plant pests and pathogens. Fee $30.

Photo Credit: USDA
Forest Service

Thursday

7/16

4:00-8:30 PM

Native Plantings and Habitat Restoration Tour Buffalo, NY

Tour native plantings and habitat restoration sites including Riverbend, Oxbow Wetland, Tiff Nature Preserve, Seneca Bluffs, and additional Buffalo Niagara Riverkeeper Projects. No fee, but registration is required. Space is limited.

Friday

7/17

1:00-4:00 PM

WNY Land Conservancy Kenneglenn Work Day, East Aurora, NY

The WNY Land Conservancy is looking for volunteers to help with invasive species removal at their nature preserve. Please bring boots and gloves.

For questions or to register email wnyprism@buffalostate.edu or call:
(716) 878-4708. To see our complete calendar of events visit www.wnyprism.org.

WNY PRISM OFFICE
Great Lakes Center - SAMC 319
SUNY Buffalo State
1300 Elmwood Avenue
Buffalo, NY 14222

WNY PRISM would like to thank our Partners:

Department of Environmental Conservation