

Watercraft Inspection Steward Program

Monthly Data Report - June 2022

Total Interactions
5,207

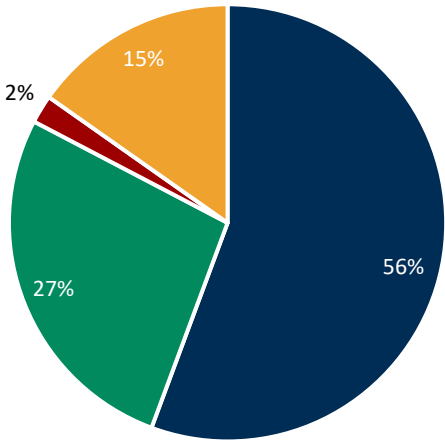

Total Inspections
2,372

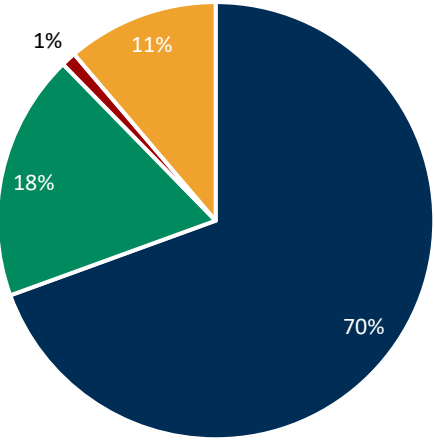

83.9% Acceptance Rate

Were Any AIS Spread Prevention Measures Taken:

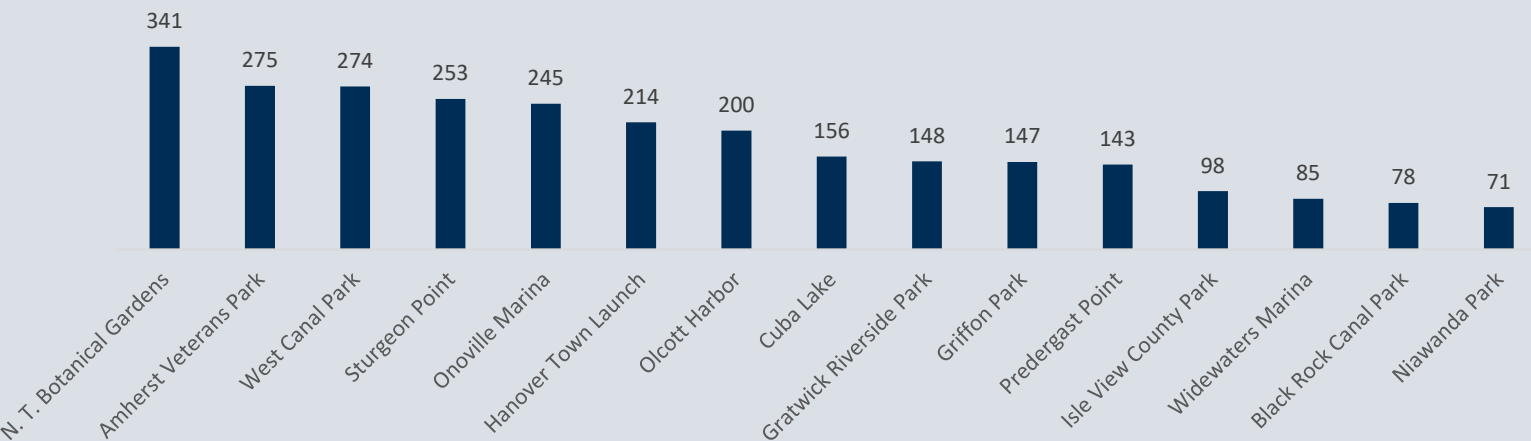

Previous Contact with a Boat Steward:

■ Yes ■ No ■ Boater Doesn't Know ■ Not Asked

The WNY PRISM Watercraft Inspection Steward Program has 16 stewards stationed at 15 different launches throughout western New York. The stewards perform voluntary watercraft inspections to remove visible aquatic plants and animals from all types of watercraft. They work Thursday-Sunday from Memorial Day until Labor Day.

Watercraft Inspected per Launch

Total Invasive Species Removed:
53

Curly Leaf Pondweed: 29

Eurasian Watermilfoil: 21

Zebra Mussel: 3